LAST TIME OUT

The Sparks snapped a six-game losing streak with a 77-68 victory over Connecticut on Saturday night at Crypto.com Arena. Rae Burrell led all scorers with 20 points, while Los Angeles held the Sun to 35.1% shooting from the field and just 4-for-24 from three-point range. The Sparks took control with a 12-2 first-quarter run and led by double figures for much of the night, trailing only after Connecticut scored the game's opening basket.

Atlanta defeated Phoenix, 99-89, on Saturday night to clinch a spot in the WNBA playoffs. Angel Reese led the Dream with a career-high 31 points and 14 rebounds, including 21 points in the second half, while adding four steals. Atlanta finished with 12 steals and committed just eight turnovers as the Dream earned their third consecutive victory

STAFF STORIES: THE 2026 SPARKS

Lynne Roberts

Roberts enters her second season as head coach of the Sparks after leading the team to its best Offensive Rating in franchise history and the organization's highest winning percentage since 2020. Before joining the franchise, Roberts spent nine years leading the University of Utah women's basketball program, where she was named 2023 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and led the Utes to a Sweet 16 appearance.

Zak Buncik

Buncik enters his second season on the Sparks' coaching staff after serving the previous three seasons behind the Dallas Wings bench. The basketball lifer began as player development coach from 2022-23 before being promoted to assistant coach ahead of last season. Prior to his time with the Wings, the Fort Worth native ran Zak Buncik Player Development, a player development program where he trained WNBA and NBA players.

Ebony Hoffman

Hoffman enters her first season on the Sparks' coaching staff after serving the previous four seasons behind the Seattle Storm's bench. The Los Angeles native played 11 seasons in the WNBA, including three seasons with the Sparks, and won the 2008 WNBA Most Improved Player Award. As a USC Trojan, Hoffman made the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team and was named All Pac-10 her final three collegiate seasons.

Zach O'Brien

O'Brien arrives in Los Angeles for his first season as a Sparks assistant coach after serving as Liberty assistant coach from 2022-25. A champion with the Liberty in 2024 and as head coach of Mist at Unrival during the 2026 WNBA offseason, O'Brien spent 2021-22 with the Mercury as a player development coach. The Schenectady, New York native scored more than 1,500 career points at Saint Joseph's College of Maine, a Division III school, before playing two years for Oxford Brookes University in England.

PREVIOUS GAME RECAP - Sparks vs Sun - August 22, 2026

SPARKS SNAP SKID WITH WIN OVER SUN

The Sparks snapped a six-game losing streak with a 77-68 victory over Connecticut on Saturday night at Crypto.com Arena. Rae Burrell led all scorers with 20 points, while Los Angeles held the Sun to 35.1% shooting from the field and just 4-for-24 from three-point range. The Sparks took control with a 12-2 first-quarter run and led by double figures for much of the night, trailing only after Connecticut scored the game's opening basket.

Postgame QuotesHead Coach Lynne RobertsOn the impact of winning at home:*

"We come out with the win because of the work we did in the first three quarters. I think in that fourth, the foul on [Cameron Brink] that I challenged, and then Dearica [Hamby]'s flagrant, that kind of took the air out of the ball a little bit... But, I'm glad we got the win. These guys have been working hard, and they've been showing up every day and doing what we asked, and that's what a pro does, and so I am proud of them that we finally got a reward of the win for those."

Rae Burrell*On her game mentality:*

"Just to stay aggressive. They weren't going to lay down, so we were just trying to stick with it and play the right way. I feel like we came out way better with a way better start than we have before to set the tone and just keep that momentum going."

On the team's chemistry impacting the game:

"I think just being comfortable. Honestly, it just makes it so much easier when you're comfortable out there. When you know your teammates and coaches got your back and just being able to play with that confidence. So, I think that's just helped me play more freely and just putting me in great positions."

Erica Wheeler*On encouraging Tonie Morgan's development:*

"Tonie [Morgan], that's my Florida girl. We're both from Florida, so I take pride in being able to be a big success from Miami... I think it's not just for Tonie, just for everybody, even [Monique Akoka Makani], just being able to help her adjust. And Tonie is different. She's athletic as hell. Unlike [anything I've] seen in a while, and she has something in her bag, and the longer she plays this game, she's going to be really good, and she's picking up things fast. She's been thrown in the fire from [developmental player] to star into coming off the bench playing very important minutes and efficient too... She's been doing a great job. So, I pride myself on that. She's been doing really good. But, credit to coaches giving to her the opportunity to show you guys and show the world that she belonged in this league."

On gelling as a team tonight:

"Defensively, we're dialed in. Offensively, we're playing with pace. I thought that's how we wanted to start the games. I thought defensively, we were talking better. Our pickup points were better. We were focused on getting consecutive stops. Everyone was in on what we needed to do."
